PROSPECTS OF THE DRY GOODS TRADE FOR THE ENSUING SPRING—BUSINESS IN THE SOUTH GETTING BRIGHTER.—There has been a good deal of speculation, and not a little misgiving, in regard to the prospects of our manufacturers and wholesale men in relation to the incoming spring trade. It was pretty generally conceded, as a foregone conclusion, that it would be dull and flat. But, fortunately, the lil-omened Cassandras have a fair chance of coming out wrong in their calculations, and our leading houses are anticlosting a pretty brisk demand. houses are anticipating a pretty brisk demand when the trade fairly opens. The chief fears have been in relation to the Southern custom. In former years the Southern merchants were accustomed to the long-credit system. Six and eight months was not an unusual credit, and it eight months was not an unusual credit, and it was a general thing, not a special one. A merchant would come up and buy a large stock of goods, and would date from the 1st of March for his spring purchases, and from the 1st of September for his fail. But now the net cash system has been introduced, and will be rigidly adhered to in all dealings. The consequence is, that there is less recklessness in the purchase of goods, and more care in the selection. The good effects of this system are at once seen in the greater assurity to all parties, both sellers and greater security to all parties, both sellers and buyers.

There seems to be a general determination amongst manufacturers to curtail their expenses, and to reduce the number of hands rather than reduce the wages of their operatives. In consequence of this mode of action, the quantity of manufactured goods will be lessened, and it will have the effect of stiffening to action. up prices. Some of the mills have ceased opera-tions entirely, but the great majority have re-solved to go on as above. Very few, if any, will turn out as much as was manufactured last year. In some grades of goods, and especially in the cotton and woollen mixed, there will be a dead loss to the manufacturers, and they are going into the market at less than the cost price, When the Government tax of 5 per cent, is added, it may very easily be seen what the effect will be. Our wholesale commission men, as a general Our wholesale commission men, as a general thing, have laid in a good supply of goods, in the expectation of a brisk demand. The jobbers and retailers are running with very short supplies, in the prospect of a still further fall in prices. But in spite of all drawbacks, it is almost certain that there will be a lively and brisk trade in dress goods and staples, both with the West and South. Already the indications are that the Southern trade, particularly from the middle and southwestern sections, will be middle and southwestern sections, will be nearly as large as in former seasons. The mer-chants from the West and Northwest will scon-come in, and our city will then exhibit a busy

SALE OF STOCKS AND REAL ESTATE.-The following properties were offered for sale at the Philadelphia Exchange, by Messrs. Davis & Harvey, commencing at noon to-day, with the annexed result:-

COLLECTING MONEY ON FALSE PRETENSES .-Collecting Money on False Pretenses.—
For two or three days past, a couple of young men named Charles Guttericht and John R.
Keyser, have been imposing upon the public in and around the neignborhood of the Seventh District, by collecting money and subscriptions, being delegated for that purpose, so they said,
by the Northern Liberty Hose Company, to aid in buying a new carriage. Alderman Toland bearing of this transaction, looked into it, and learning that they were obtaining it, and learning that they were obtaining money without any authority from said com-pany, he issued a warrant for their arrest, and yesterday they were each committed in default of $1000 bail to answer at Court.

A MAN KILLED IN CAMDEN .- Yesterday afternoon a number of men were engaged in un-loading the ballast of a ship at what is known as the "ballast wharf," Kaighn's Point. A bucket of the dirt was in the air, when the rope broke, and the block which was suspended to the yardarm fell on a man named William Ditmer, inhim to such an extent that he died shortly after. He was removed to his father's residence, in Walnut street, below Broadway, Deceased leaves two small children, his wife having died about two weeks since. A brother of his was killed by the explosion of the boiler a tug-boat on the Delaware, about two

A MUSICAL THIEF .- Martin C. Parker was arrested at Lawrence and Thompson streets yesterday afternoon, on a charge of larceny. Parker had with him when arrested a piece of twilled cassimere, black and white warp, and black and brown filling. This he had evidently stolen from some dry goods store. Not satisfied with his operations in dry goods, he managed to remove a violin from the front of a second-hand furniture store at Girard avenue and Lithgow street. He was detected in the latter theft, and was taken into custody. After a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, he was committed in default of bail to answer a charge of larceny.

STEARING HATS .- As John Brown was marchafternoon, he saw a number of good-looking hats in the store of Mr. Salin. John marched in, and seeing no one about, he picked up six hats, and walked out with them without saying a word to anybody. As John did not have the appearance of being engaged in the trade, the policeman on the corner stopped him, and asked him to give an account of himself. This John did in such a crooked manner that he was arrested, and taken before Alderman Tittermary, by whom he was committed on a charge of larceny, after the facts of the case had been made known.

THE CITY .- The city is now in the enjoyment of a twofold blessing. In the first place, we are enjoying the most delightful weather. The streets are thronged with pedestrians, and, of course, the shops are doing a good business, especially in the dress goods and fancy lines. Another blessing we are enjoying is the unusually small number of cases of infringements of the laws. We have not had a murder for some days, and the burglars have apparently stopped operations. In fact, the city is in a state of dead alm as far as police matters go. May it con-

A PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE. - Alexander Simms two days ago shipped on board the barque Constantine as Steward. Yesterday the barque was ready to sail, but on examination it was ascertained that the newly shipped Steward was missing, and on his departure the wardrobe of the First Mate, Edwin Davis, and the constant of the con also took company under Simms care. Com-plaint was made, the police informed, Simms arrested, and yesterday afternoon he was held Alderman Toland to answer at Court in default of $800 bail.

St. Davio's Dav .- To-morrow is the festi val of St. David, the patron Saint of Wales, and it will be duly celebrated by the Society, who will partake of a grand dinner, at which Horatio Gates Jones, Esq., will preside. In the evening a lecture will be delivered in Welsh, at Diligen Hall, Tenth and Flibert streets, followed by a miscellaneous concert in Welsh and English, in which some of our most eminent singers will participate. The Weish in Philadelphia are not numerous, but highly enterprising and LECTURE BY GENERAL HOWARD.—The lecture LECTURE BY GENERAL HOWARD.—The lecture by Major-General Howard, the noble chief of the Fretzmen's Bureau, before the Social, Civil, and Statistical Association this evening, pro-mises to be of rare interest. Assuredly no one is better qualified to speak on the subject of the present and prospective condition of the freed people than General Howard, and it is upon this topic that he will give the results of his large experience. Such an opportunity as is presented to-night should not be missed.

WHOLESALE NEWS DEPOT .- John O'Brien, in w Holesale News Drpot.—John O'Brien, in addition to his News Stand in the Post Office, has opened a Wholesale News Agency at No. 28 S. Sixth street, and will keep always on hand a full supply of "Harpers" and "Peterson's" Magazines, "Godey's Lady's Book," "The Lady's Friend," "Atlantic Monthly," together with all the newspapers and periodicals published in this and the neighboring cities, Give him a call.

POTATORS, STONES, RTC., USED IN A QUAR-REL.—John Silver, a white man, and Leyton Lewis, a black man, were engaged at work on the dock between Race and Vine streets yes-terday afternoon. It is said that the quarrel terday afternoon. It is said that the quarrel which occurred was on political opinions and differences. Nevertheless there was a quarrel, and potatoes and stones, being handy, were used freely as missiles by the beiligerents. Lewis at last ploked up a piece of a brick and threw it at Silver, who dodged, and the brick struck another person behind on the right temple, knocking him senseless, and injuring him so badly that he had to be taken to his home. Constable Sullivan arrested the two parties, and Alderman Williams committed them to answer in default of $690 ball each.

them to answer in default of $600 ball each. PAYMENT OF TAXES .- The following statement exhibits the amounts paid at the office of the Receiver of Taxes during the present month: February 1... $285,265,14 February 15... $81,914 77 February L 18,... 128,985 29 124,933 16 Do. Do. Do. 119,304:51 109,795·29 116,338·20 Total ..... $2,331,380-22

A Case of Jealousy .- A woman who passes under the name and title of Annie Morrison was before Alderman Delaney yesterday afternoon, and was by him held in $500 bail to appear at court to answer to the charge of smashing in the window panes of Mrs. Gillhouse, who resides on Passyunk road, near Fitzwater street. The cause of Annie's wrath, under the influence of which she was led to commit this petty depredation, was the fact that her lover had forsaken her and betaken himself unto Mrs. Gillhouse.

TESTING THE LEGALITY OF AN ORDINANCE.-A gentleman residing in the western part of the city, having a notion to test the legality of the city, having a notion to test the legality of the ordinance respecting the cleaning of gutters, refused to have his cleaned when notified to do so, on the alleged plea that it was the city's duty to have it done. He was cited to appear on both sides of the question, the gentleman referred to was fined for committing a breach of ordinance.

STOLEN PROPERTY .- There are at the South STOLEN PROPERTY.—There are at the South-wark Hall Police Station a number of articles supposed to be stolen. They are as follows:— A shovel marked with initials; a brass padlock, four keys, and a ring, marked "D. M. & Co.;" some zephyr and brass friction rollers for a sheath, and a cover for a butcher's stall. The above can be obtained by the owners calling upon Sergeant Selby, at the Station.

CORNER-LOUNGING .-- Yesterday being such a fine one, the usual array of corner-loungers sunned themselves in our streets. As they had nothing else to do, some of them amused themselves by insulting passers-by. Three of the disor-derlies of this class were arrested at the corner of Twenty-third and South streets. After a hearing before Alderman Swift, they were held in $300 ball to keep the peace, and departed.

SLIGHT FIRE.-About 8 o'clock last evening, a slight fire broke out in the second story of a smail house in Huston street, above Girard avenue. It appears that a drunken fellow named Smith, who is by occupation a rag-picker, had, while drunk, dropped a lighted candle amongst a pile of rags and set them on fire. A policeman on duty saw smoke issuing from the second-story windew, and rushing up, put fire out before it had gained much headway.

SEIZURE OF A DISTILLERY .- Yesterday afternoon the extensive distillery (known as the Phoenix Distillery) of Messrs, Murray & Co., on Twenty-third street, between Race and Vine, Twenty-third street, between Race and Vine, was seized by William F. Kneass, Deputy Collector, for alleged violation of the revenue laws. The hearing will take place, and the facts of the case be fully developed, in a few BEAUMONT'S COLLECTION OF RARE AND BEAUTIFUL PAINTINGS,—B. Scott, Jr., Auctioneer, will offer at public sale on the evenings of the 4th and 5th of March, at the Art Gallery, No. 1020 Chesnut street, one of the finest and most beautiful collections of paintings yet offered to the public. The collection comprises the works of the most noted of European and American artists, and has been uropean and American artists, and has be collected with great care by the owner, J. P. Beaumont, Esq. The collection embraces one hundred and fifty fine works, of every variety, exhibiting in each specimen the highest or ler of artistic merit. We have before referred to of artistic merit. We have before referred to some of the prominent pieces in the collection as being miracles of beauty in the great art of painting. "Fruit and Glass of Champagne," by one of the most celebrated, if not the greatest of living European artists, is a wonderful pro-duction of the brush, and though small in size, we in costliness in the skill displayed in yet in costliness, in the skill displayed in its composition, and in its elegant beauty, it sur-passes all others of its class to be found in this country. There is, too, exhibited an old work— a romantic scene—by the father of American artists. This is one of the rare opportunities which have been offered to our citizens, who should not fail to appreciate the labor of collecting these beautiful works of art, which are fitted to adorn with elegance the walls of any dwelling.

THE GLOBE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, The assets of this Company are nearly a mil-lion of dollars. Established only two years and a half, they have issued seven thousand policies, and their accumulated funds are quadruple those amassed by any other Company at so early a period of their operations. This is highly creditable to the management and their co workers throughout the country; but it is mainly to be ascribed to the forfeiture of its policies in case of the discontinuance of the policies in case of the discontinuance of the premiums. This protection to its insurers originated with its Vice-President, B. G. Bloss, Esq., and has made this corporation extremely popular. In fact, it has done much to bring Life Insurance into general favor. Had it been a principle twenty years since, it would probably have increased the value of this Safety Guard five-fold.—N. Y. York Evening Express, February 19, 1867.

"SAVONINE;" A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY!!! A BUSINESS EDUCATION .- A business education is an advantage to a man in any walk of life. Daniel Webster and Henry Clay have both said that an education in a countinghouse is the best training a man could receive for entering into life with. No matter what pursuit he follows, politics, religion, medicine, or any other, it will always be of benefit to him. or any other, it will always be of benefit to him. We notice, in this connection, the numerous facilities that are offered at the different business Colleges. "SAVONINE;" A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY !!!

SUNDAY CARS.—The Sunday Car question has not yet been determined by the Legislature, but our City Councils have wisely prohibited the use of sait on the tracks, which proved so disastrous to shoe leather, and tended to ruin parlor carpets. The latter are articles of household furniture which are as expensive as useful, and should be well taken care of. The best and cheapest place to purchase them in this city at present is at Mr. J. R. White's, No. 13 N. Second street, as there is every variety, inducement, etc., on most reasonable terms. Mr. White is a sterling business man, and knows how to suit his customers. how to suit his customers.

amendment. The Tariff Bill. The Ways and Means Committee will make one more trial with the Tariff bill, and then give it up.

The Secretary of the Treasury has received information from England, of a trustworthy character, which leads to the belief that in the event of the passage of the Tariff bill, increasing the duties on goods imported into the United States, organized attempts will be made to smuggle goods extensively into the country, and more especially from Canada.

Also, on the memorial of French Canadians and others, remonstrating against the proposed confederation of the British Provinces.

Mr. Conness (Cal.) spoke against such a summary disposal of so important a matter as the Hawaian reciprocity, and on his motion the report on the sucject was laid on the table. The Committee was discharged in the other cases.

Mr. Sumner also asked to be discharged from the further consideration of n section 3. That it shall be the duty of the Commis-

Augusta to accept presents from an amendment exempting these presents from duty.

Mr. Sprague (R. I.) asked what was the character of these presents.

Mr. Summer said they consisted of a number of books and a valuable snuft-box, presented to Mr. Fox by the Emperor of Russia. The duty on the diamonds in the fatter article would be four thousand dollars.

Mr. Fessenden said these gentlemen had been enjoying themselves abroad, and he was glad of it but he submitted whether the duties ought to be remitted because the articles had been given to them. If a gentleman bought a private library he would have to pay duty on the

Mr. Kasson (Iowa), from the Committee on Apprepriations, reported back the Senste amendments to the Indian Appropriation bill, some of which were concurred in, and some not concurred in.

The amendment to pay the interest on non-paying bonds and stocks, in which the money of certain Indians was invested by the Government, was non-concurred in, Mr. Kasson stating the circumstances and expressing the opinion that the Government should assume the debt and prosecute the claim for such bonds and stocks. He therefore wished the matter togo to a Committee of Conference.

The amendment to pay the deposit of $3,000 in the Merchant's National, lost by the failure of that concern, was non-concurred in.

An amendment in reference to the annuities of the Mismi tribe of Indians, of Indiana gave rise to rather a tedious discussion, the question arising on a proposition to exclude persons not entitled to share in the annuities.

Finally, after an hour and a half of debate, the amendment was agreed to.

and had not yet had his case tried.

The Judge said that he had before him three hundred cases, and it could not be expected that he could try them in a day. This man had gone to private counsel, and had never mentioned his case to the public prosecuting officer, and deserved to have himself discommoded. As soon as his case could be reached it should be tried, and certainly not sooner. The Judge also said that within twenty days there would be two Judges sitting to dispose of the criminal busi-ness, and then the public surely would be satisfied.
